ノート:

Psa 146:1-2

Lot of emphasis on praise and worship

Pastor Higa used to like doing disco dance in front of a mirror.

Old songs bring us back in memory. We think of our past.

Romans says nothing can separate us from the love of God.

It was Lucifers job to play music in heaven.

Power in praise

Music gives flashbacks of our past.

Walk in or hearts as christians.

Touching our heads because emotions are in our minds.
We keep trying to do things in our own flesh and strength.
Fire from God releases a good smell.
Alter always burning
Fire from the alter gets Gods attention
God loves praises.
David had experience with Giving God praise.
David killed the predators. He would always praise his God.
God would overcome his trials because of his praise and worship. Against all these animals he would fight.
Enemy will attack everyone.
David knew how to fight his battles because he always had praise and worshiped.
David had no fear even when the king had fear. All because he knew his God and God was with him.
Don't let your own emotions take you down. We must keep praying and praising God for victories.
To fear the Lord gives us great victory
Psalms 119:35
Psalms 119:47
When were corrected our emotions go up and down and crazy. Man responds by crazy emotions
David was a man like any other person.
When your corrected by man or God.... Give God praises and thanks
Keep Righteous praise within ourselves.
God is within us. We can do all things with Christ.
Psalms 119:105-109
